

Bed Bug Scrambler

DIRECTIONS: After learning about how easily bed bugs can travel, figure out the proper order of these events so they make sense leading up to #10!

- 1 A bed bug clings to Mr. Parker's slippers as he puts them in his suitcase. He's off to a convention at his favourite hotel.
- Once home, George unpacks his suitcase, then calls his friend to hang out.
- Walter rings the doorbell, and before going into the backyard to play, puts his backpack in George's room.
- One morning, Bernie's wife finds blood spots on their bedsheets, and her legs have tiny bite marks. Is it a nasty spider?
- Bernie, the bus driver, has his gym bag sitting just behind his seat. He smells someone's fried chicken.
- The Twiggy family is on vacation and booked a hotel downtown. They get settled in their room and George Twiggy puts his suitcase on the floor by his bed.
- Bernie looks in the seams of the mattress and the box springs for any hiding bed bugs!
- Walter needs to do his homework. He says good-bye to George and jumps on the city bus.
- The family had a great time and heading home. They all pile into the van!
- 10 The bed bug is found, and all his relatives! Bernie and his wife get right to work getting rid of those sneaky little travellers for good!
